Re: Defendants' Request for an Adjournment in Hyman v. Fabbri et al., No. 19 Civ. 10506

Judge Torres:

I write to request a one-week adjournment of the hearing currently set for Wednesday, February 19, 2020, at 10:00 a.m.

Unfortunately, I caught the flu and this illness triggered a full-blown relapse of the multiple sclerosis that I suffer from. I was admitted into the emergency room and subsequently into the hospital. Different doctors have evaluated my condition and we do not know when I will be discharged including my regular neurologist who has privileges at the hospital.

During this time, I have worked to have other attorneys join the case and represent the Defendants moving forward. But the two attorneys who are admitted in the SDNY are on vacation until the end of this week, and a third attorney admitted in Maryland cannot contact the bar association to obtain his certificate of good standing until tomorrow at the earliest (as today was a holiday) and thus it is unclear whether he will be able file a pro hac vice motion in time for the hearing Wednesday.

One of the attorneys, Joshua Levin-Epstein, has confirmed that he can appear next week. He has a strong preference towards Thursday and against Monday, but has stated that, regardless of the date, he will appear to represent the Defendants on the Order to Show Cause. In light of the above, I respectfully request an adjournment so that new attorneys may appear at the hearing.

Respectfully,
